

Laredo & Zapata Classrooms Awarded School Readiness Certifications

The Texas School Ready Project announced the quantity of classrooms in Laredo and Zapata that were awarded the “School Readiness Certification for 2009-2010 by the State Center for Early Childhood Development at The University of Texas Health Science Center at Houston.

A ceremony was held at the UISD Student Activity Complex to announce the classrooms that were certified from United ISD, Laredo ISD, Zapata ISD, Head Starts, Private Child Cares and Faith Based Schools.

United ISD had 24 classrooms certified, Laredo ISD had 39 classrooms certified, Faith Based Schools had 3 certified, Webb County Head Start had 12 classrooms and Zapata ISD had 8 classrooms that were designated School Ready!

Hidalgo County Classrooms Awarded School Readiness Certifications

Texas School Ready Project announced today that 44 classrooms in Hidalgo County were awarded the “School Readiness Certification for 2009-2010 by the State Center for Early Childhood Development at The University of Texas Health Science Center at Houston. A ceremony was held at J.S. Adame Elementary to announce the 44 classrooms that were certified from Hidalgo. TMC CEO Mary Capello congratulated the teachers on their certification and presented the teachers with their Certificate.

The following are schools whose classrooms received the Texas School Ready! designation. Weslaco ISD had 15 classrooms designated, Weslaco’s OSM Charter School had 2 classrooms designated, Valley View ISD had 10 classrooms designated, Donna ISD had 7 classrooms designated School Ready! Hidalgo County Head Start Centers had 4 classrooms designated and TMC Migrant Seasonal Head Start Centers had 2 classrooms designated School Ready! Also, classrooms from three private child cares received the School Ready! designation.

