

Rio Grande Valley TMC Employees Assist Eagle Pass Tornado Victims

May 25, 2007

Palmview - The Rio Grande Valley Texas Migrant Council, Inc. (TMC) family has responded graciously to the devastation caused by the deadly Tornado that hit Eagle Pass on the 24th of April 2007 by donating goods to families in need.

“I commend Dr. Mary Alice Reyes, Regional Administrator and all our employees in the Rio Grande Valley who responded whole heartedly to the request for assistance from their colleagues in Eagle Pass”, stated Mary Capello – CEO.

The goods are being delivered to Eagle Pass by three TMC employees, Gino Perez, Juan P. Gutierrez, both from the Palmview center, and Alfonso Montano, Valley Transportation Coordinator. These goods will be received in Eagle Pass by TMC Center Managers, Rodolfo Lopez, Meli Serrano and Nora Mauricio who will make sure that these goods are delivered to those who were affected by this devastating tornado.
